

● CALL FOR PAPERS

Centre for Economy Development & Law, Government Law College Thrissur, Kerala, invites scholarly articles and research papers for 3rd Volume of the Journal Elenchus – the 2017-'18 edition. Elen L. R. is a peer-reviewed inter-disciplinary journal which aims to encourage the inquisitive mind of the legal and the allied academia. This time we are calling for two issues together, which means we offer more space. Also, we promise a special preference to review articles about recent legal events and developments, i.e. during 2016 and 2017.

● INTER-DISCIPLINARY VISION

DON'T HESITATE IF YOUR WORK PERTAINS LESS TO LAW. Elen L.R. is a law journal with interdisciplinary approach and was lauded by senior professors for its contents in the hitherto published issues.

Send in your paper, if it provides insights to legal discipline.
